About New Art Est-Ouest Auctions

Established in 1984, New Art Est-Ouest stands as Japan's pioneering and most esteemed international auction house. Bearing the name "Est-Ouest," meaning "East-West" in French, it has played a pivotal role in shaping both the Japanese and Western art markets. Under the astute leadership of Chairman Mr. Yukio Shiraishi, our auction house has successfully penetrated the global art scene, solidifying its position as a prominent player. Drawing upon our extensive expertise, we have curated and organized auctions of international stature, attaining groundbreaking prices and expanding our reach into the realms of contemporary art and Asian markets. In line with our strategic vision, we are repositioning our Hong Kong branch to further fortify our standing within the Asian art market. Through an unwavering commitment to innovation and fruitful collaborations, we endeavor to foster artistic exchange and appreciation, creating a vibrant platform that brings together art enthusiasts and collectors.
