

Regarding the Joint Use of Customer Information Within Our Group Companies

We are pleased to inform you that our parent company, NEW ART HOLDINGS Co., Ltd., has established a new sister company named Tozai New Art Co., Ltd., with a vision for the future of Japan's art industry. Like our company, this new entity will focus on art auctions as its main business.

Accordingly, in order to provide even better services to our customers, we will begin the joint use of personal data within our group companies, in accordance with Article 27, Paragraph 5, Item 3 of the Act on the Protection of Personal Information, as outlined below:

1. Items Subject to Joint Use

- Basic contact information such as name, address, phone number, and email address
- Contract details, transaction history (purchases and sales), registration information, identification documents, and other service usage history with our company

2. Scope of Joint Users

- New Art Est-Ouest Auctions Co., Ltd.
- Tozai New Art Co., Ltd.

3. Purpose of Use

- Simplification of Identity verification and related procedures
- Improvement of service quality and convenience
- Provision and operation of art auctions and related services
- Notifications and proposals regarding new services and events
- Appropriate customer support (inquiries, history review, etc.)

4. Person Responsible for the Management of Personal Data
